Capt. Turpie Yesterday se'nnight arrived here from Jamaica, gives us the following Information, viz. that he had been on the Coast of New Spain (not long before he came from Jamaica,) and was there inform'd, that Commodore Anson had taken several Ships, and put all the Coast along the South-Sea into great Consternation; that he had taken the Island of Paita, (in Peru) and also several Vessels there, besides 18 Million of Dollars, and 15 Million more in Merchandize, &c. and had been off Panama, which put the People there in great Confusion, as expecting a Visit from him That Admiral Vernon upon hearing this News, set sail with his whole Fleet from Jamaica, with the Governor of that Island on Board, for Porto Belo, where being arrived, he designed to march some of his Men over to Panama, to assist Commodore Anson, but the Rainy Season being began, he was obliged to leave the Place; Governor Trelawney return'd to Jamaica in One of the Men of War, and left the Admiral, as he suppos'd, going to make an Attempt upon Carthagena That a large Settee had been lately brought into Jamaica (by one of the Men of War) of 250 Tuns, and with a very rich Cargo. Capt Turpie also informs us, that in his Passage hither he had been chas'd by 2 Spanish Privateers one a small Scooner, and the other a Sloop of about 60 Tuns. but his Vessel being a prime Sailor, happily got clear off
